Shri Sunil Sahu, counsel for the petitioner.

Heard.

The petitioner's husband was working with respondents' Board. It is stated that he retired on 31.3.1996 and died on 26.7.1996. The grievance of the petitioner is that the revised commutation of pension, which has been sanctioned in respect of her late husband as per order dated 18.1.1999 (Annexure P-3), is not being paid. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that several representations have been made to the respondents, but they have not been considered till date. He prays for a direction commanding the respondents to release/disburse the amount to the petitioner expeditiously.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation afresh raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 15 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within two months from the date of receipt of the representation by reasoned order. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

C.C.as per rules.
